

MULTI-LANGUAGE LITIGATION SERVICES (MLLS)

Expert multi-language litigation services to streamline language barriers, optimize communications and ensure accurate, defensible results

LITIGATION KNOWS NO BOUNDARIES

While a majority of domestic eDiscovery matters are conducted by and for English-speaking audiences in the U.S., more and more cases cross international borders or involve non-English discovery. As a result, these cases require experience and expertise in understanding, conducting and mastering legal matters that involve multiple languages.

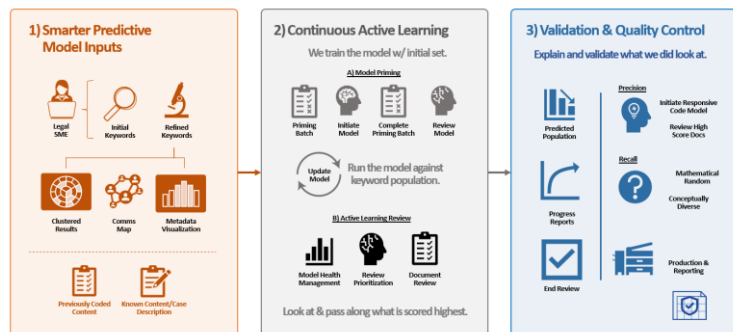

Multi-Language Litigation Services (MLLS) matters are typically complex, expensive and disjointed, requiring a deep knowledge of multiple languages, unique cultural norms and custom / country-specific data systems.

MULTI-LANGUAGE LITIGATION ACUMEN

Celerity Discovery excels in navigating the complexities of multi-lingual data with precision and cultural sensitivity. Our MLLS combines deep multi-language and cross-cultural acumen with best-in-class technologies and field-tested workflows to help clients understand, simplify and expedite the MLLS process. This ensures accurate, defensible results in legal and business contexts.

LEVERAGING BEST-IN-CLASS TECHNOLOGIES

The Celerity team has helped clients successfully navigate discovery in multiple language cases across the globe. Celerity does this by utilizing Technology-Assisted-Review (TAR) models such as Brainspace's Continuous Multi-Modal Learning (CMML) and custom workflows to drive cost control and production defensibility in multi-language matters.
